TRAILFAM at Devil's Dyke

On Monday 3rd June, fourteen Year 7 girls spent the day at Devil's Dyke, a beautiful countryside area with glorious panoramic views across the South Downs and Sussex countryside. They enjoyed a strenuous TrailFam hike around hills, woodlands and valleys, stopping for a picnic at the end of the walk, where a retired geography teacher stopped to give the group an impromptu talk about the area and the surrounding terrain. They also enjoyed watching lots of colourful paragliders soaring in the Sussex sky. All the girls did really well, showed resilience and strength, and had a lovely day out!

Poetry masterclass

During the last week of school before the May half-term Dr Jessica Gosling a lecturer from Goldsmiths University London's English and Creative Writing department was invited into Mulberry Academy Shoreditch to deliver a poetry masterclass to year 12 English literature students on the gothic and romantic elements of the poetry of John Keats. The students found the session extremely useful as they were preparing for their end-of-year exams and were thoroughly engaged in the expertise knowledge Dr Gosling was able to share with them. Not only was this session aimed at preparing them for their exams and further developing their understanding of their A-level texts, but it was also a taster of what a university seminar would be like should they wish to study English and Creative Writing at Goldsmiths.

MATHS PROBLEM OF THE WEEK

Did you manage to solve the maths problem this week?

Adam, Bill and Chris went swimming 15 times last summer. Adam paid for everyone eight times and Bill paid for everyone seven times. At the end of the summer, Chris calculated that he owed £30. How should he split this between Adam and Bill so that each has paid the same amount?

ANSWER: £18 to Adam, £12 to Bill

If each person paid their fair share, each would have paid five times. Therefore Adam has paid on an extra three occasions and Bill has paid on an extra two occasions. Hence the £30 Chris owes should be divided in the ratio 3:2. Therefore Adam should get $\frac{3}{5} \times £30 = £18$ and Bill should get $\frac{2}{5} \times £30 = £12$.

If your child did not receive their Year 9 DTP/MEN ACWY VACCINATIONS, they will be able to have this on Tuesday 9th July 2024. If you have not consented and would like your child to receive the vaccination, please complete the form by following this link.
